

Chinese American Faculty Association of Southern California (CAFA) Newsletter, January 16, 2001

Dear CAFA Members and Friends:

Happy New Year and welcome back to the Spring Semester or Winter Quarter!

As your President and President-elect of the Chinese American Faculty Association of Southern California (CAFA), we like to thank you for the wonderful supports you provided in the past years to CAFA and its activities. In the coming year, we hope you continue to support us by attending CAFA functions, suggesting activities that CAFA should carry, introducing new CAFA members, and volunteering to help our activities.

This year our annual convention will be on March 3, 2001 (Saturday, 6:00 p.m.) at Quiet Cannon Restaurant in Montebello (part of Montebello Golf Course; Tel: 323-724-4500). Please mark your calendar and make sure you and your friends come to enjoy this magnificent event. Our speaker will be Dr. Michael M. C. Lai, Professor of Molecular Microbiology & Immunology at USC Keck School of Medicine. He will share with us some of his research findings on "Viral Hepatitis and Liver Cancer: Scourges of the Chinese?"

We need your help on the following matters:

1. Bring your friends to attend the 2001 CAFA Convention on Saturday, March 3 by purchasing $35 dinner ticket per person;
2. Contribute $65 per person to the CAFA Scholarship Foundation by purchase a special ticket $100 (instead of $35 regular ticket price) to attend the 2001 CAFA Convention (Mail your check payable to the CAFA Scholarship Fund to Professor Jean Loo, Department of Finance and Law, California State University at Los Angeles, 5151 University Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90032 (Tel: 323-343-2872, E-mail:jlou@calstatela.edu);
3. Encourage college students to apply for the CAFA Scholarship by Friday, February 9;
4. Apply for a "CAFA Faculty Development Grant" by Thursday, February 15;
5. Nominate some candidates for CAFA Achievement Award and Service Award by Thursday, February 15;
6. Volunteer or nominate next year's officers and campus liaisons;
7. Update your membership information and send the membership fee ($10.00 or Lifetime Membership $100) to Professor Jean Loo.

All the necessary forms are enclosed for your use in these matters. You can visit our website at <http://www.cafasc.org> to download forms and information. Without your participation and support, our CAFA will not remain viable and active to serve our colleagues and the local community. We are counting on you, our loyal members, to provide leadership and make our organization grow.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas W. Lin	Andy Chichuan Yao

Letter from President of the CAFA Scholarship Foundation

Dear CAFA members and friends:

I am writing on behalf of the CAFA Scholarship Foundation Board to ask for your generous help. Please give yourself and us a few minutes to read on, because your response will help faculty members like yourself and worthy students.

Each year CAFA [www.cafasc.org] awards five college student scholarships totaling $2,500, which comes from member donations and solicitations from the Chinese community. It is a hand-to-mouth operation.

CAFA Scholarship Foundation (CAFASF) was founded in 1995. It aims to establish an endowment large enough to generate interests to fund not just student scholarships but faculty development awards annually. So far the endowment stands at ~$50,000. Last year CAFASF funded three faculty development awards and five student scholarships. At this rate, the CAFASF endowment will vanish in a short time without your help.

How can you help? There are three ways:

- (1) To sponsor the $100 CAFA Convention tickets. $65 will go to the CAFASF endowment, while you and your guests will be seated at a special table for recognition at the convention;*
- (2) To donate directly to the CAFASF endowment;*
- (3) To designate CAFASF as a beneficiary in your charity donations, for example, in a Charitable Remainder Trust.*

All donations to the CAFASF are tax deductible, and applied FULLY towards the scholarships and grants. CAFASF board members are all volunteers and there is ZERO percent overhead. Please contact me or any board members for more details, including establishing a scholarship/grant in honor of your family, in memory of some loved ones.

We of CAFASF thank you in advance for your interests, and hope that you will support this worthy cause.

Sincerely yours,

Sun-yiu Fung
President, CAFA Scholarship Foundation

CAFA - Faculty Development Grant

The CAFA Faculty Development Grant aims to support CAFA faculty members in their scholarly pursuit. The grant covers a range of expenses: minor equipment, materials, manuscript preparation, proposal preparation, student hires, and travel to scholarly meetings. The amount awarded to each grant will depend on the proposal and can be at the maximum of $2,000. Preference will be given to junior faculty members.

The proposal for the Faculty Development Grant will consist of a cover page and a one-page description of the proposed project (attachments are optional). The cover page provides the information about the applicant and an estimate of the budget breakdown. A template is provided below.

The proposal should be sent to:

CAFA Faculty Development Grant Committee, c/o Prof. Wellington Chan, History Department, Occidental College, 1600 Campus Road, Los Angeles, CA 90041.

The CAFA Faculty Development Grant will be presented at the CAFA 2001 annual convention, to be held this year on Saturday March 3, 2001 at Quiet Cannon Restaurant in Montebello, CA. The recipient of the grant must be present for the award, and is expected to file a report relating to the grant within fourteen months. The deadline for proposal is Thursday, February 15, 2001.
